MRS. ORNER'S TRAIL FOR HER LIFE

Testimony Begins, With J. J. Kaster, of El Paso, First on the Stand.

WOMAN PLEADS "NOT GUILTY"

Marfa, Tex., Aug. 23.—Mrs. Agnes Orner, indicted for the murder of her daughter, Lilla, in El Paso county, by poisoning, is now on trial for her life. In a crowded courtroom, a large portion of which was filled with women spectators, the scene was set for which bids fair to be the most dramatic trial ever had in Presidio county.

A full panel of jurors was secured yesterday, and promptly on the stroke of 2, district attorney Thurmond began the reading of the indictment to the defendant, Agnes Orner. During the reading, which consumed some 15 minutes, the defendant stood and with downcast eyes listened to the reading of the many counts in the indictment, each of which charged her with the murder of her only child. At the conclusion of the reading, when the district attorney asked how the defendant pleaded, for the first time she raised her eyes and, gazing straight into the eyes of the jurors, exclaimed in a clear, distinct voice: "I am not guilty."

The first witnesses examined were J. J. Kaster, an El Paso undertaker, and by agreement the testimony of J. D. Lee, given on a former trial of the same case, was read to the jury. Mr. Lee was living in the same house with Mrs. Orner at the time her daughter died. Mrs. Edith Evans, who says she has been a friend of Mrs. Orner's for several years, and who is the wife of the proprietor of the Toltec saloon in El Paso, was on the stand at the conclusion of the day's session of the court. Little progress in the trial of the case was made on account of the many objections to testimony coming from counsel.

The jury is composed of the following men, six being married, two widowers and four single: L. E. Cartwright, carpenter; T. B. Ballew, real estate; R. E. L. Tyler, ranchman; B. L. Chambers, ranchman; M. T. Matthews, ranchman; N. B. McDaniel, ranchman; J. H. Hamilton, ranchman; W. T. Millington, civil engineer; J. B. Roberts, carpenter; J. C. Sean, building contractor; Ben Avant, merchant; J. K. Brown, ranchman.

and another provision added to require every daily newspaper to print a statement of its average daily circulation.

Party Policy Indicated.
What was reported by many as a declaration of Democratic policy with reference to water power legislation was made when leader Underwood championed a bill granting a power company right to dam the Coosa river in Alabama. The measure was passed, 94 to 37. Sixteen members voted present. While Mr. Underwood's influence won the victory for the bill, many Democratic members openly rebelled against the legislation. Mr. Underwood contended that the federal government had no rights to the rivers of the country, save as to navigation.

Memorial to Major Butt.
The house committee on library has favorably reported the senate joint resolution to authorize the erection of a drinking fountain in this city as a joint memorial to Maj. Archibald W. Butt and Francis Millett, who were among the Titanic victims.

Non-Unionists Confuted.
The senate in executive session has confirmed the nominations of Francis Walker, of Massachusetts, to be deputy commissioner of corporations, and Frank A. Leach to be superintendent of the mint at San Francisco.

Penrose Renews Attack.
Senator Penrose renewed his attack upon Col. Roosevelt in the senate, under questions by Senator Reed.

Disunion Immunity Balth.
Senator Reed said the Democrats were trying to uncover Republican shortcomings, and asked senator Penrose to tell anything he knew about the use of money or patronage in behalf of president Taft at the Chicago convention.

Senator Penrose insisted that senator Penrose and senator Reed were both "confounding their attacks to Col. Roosevelt."

The candidate who was nominated at Chicago by the black belt delegates, and the delegates from the territories, were to have been obscured in this debate," he said.

Senator Reed said the Democrats had handled funds of the trusts, and we propose to have it from the other or prove his guilt.

In order to let the people know that Theodore Roosevelt is one of the men whose hands were most thoroughly tarred," he continued.

In getting information from these men who are alleged to have given contributions, I suppose the senator from Missouri would in turn give them the immunity bath," inquired senator Penrose.

"The only man who has given immunity baths is Theodore Roosevelt," retorted Mr. Reed. "He gave one when he permitted the steel trust to absorb the Tennessee Coal & Iron Co., he trucked to George W. Perkins, and ordered stopped the investigation of the harvest trust."

The facts do not bear out any such statements as that," said senator Penrose.

After reading Col. Roosevelt's statement of the telegrams between himself and Mr. Cortelyou made it unnecessary for him to appear before the senate campaign fund committee, senator Penrose said:

May Subpoena Roosevelt.
"I intend to amend my motion so that the committee will be instructed to subpoena the men mentioned in my statement. I do not intend to have it as a mere matter of invitation," added the senator.

Works Resolution Withdrawn.
No action will be taken at this session of congress on the Works resolution for a single six year term for president and vice president. Senator Cummins, who has the measure in charge, announced in the senate that he was prepared to withdraw it from immediate consideration because he knew it would not be passed before adjournment.

Army Appropriation Bill.
The senate convened at noon today and began the consideration of the conference report on the army appropriation bill. The house considered the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill. Taft Signs Appropriation Bill. President Taft today signed the new

FORT BLISS, MAY BE ENLARGED AT ONCE

Washington, D. C., Aug. 23.—Legislation in the army appropriation bill, which would have prevented the increase of Fort Bliss to a regimental post, except by express act of congress, has finally been eliminated in conference. Nothing now stands in the way of the enlargement of Fort Bliss, and it is confidently believed that this will speedily be done.

When the army bill was in the house an amendment by Mr. Helm, of Kentucky, prohibited the increase of any army post except by act of congress.

legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, twice vetoed because it carried amendments to abolish the commerce court and limit the tenure of officers of civil service employees to seven years. Both these provisions had been eliminated and the commerce court was provided for until March 4, 1913.

Army Will Get Pay.
After several hours of heated debate during which the seven year enlistment tenure provision was attached as unconstitutional, the conference report on the army appropriation bill was agreed to by the senate today.

Promptly on being passed by the senate the army appropriation bill was rushed over to the house and that body agreed to the conference measure without a dissenting vote. The bill carries approximately eight or nine million dollars, three million dollars less than carried by the same bill last year.

TWO-CENT-FARE BILL WILL BE INTRODUCED

Jordan Declares Texas Railroads Have Not Kept Their Promises.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 23.—A two-cent railroad fare bill will be introduced in the 33rd legislature, according to Maj. H. P. Jordan, of Waco, who was nominated for the legislature from McLennan county at the recent primaries. Maj. Jordan was here today and said he would introduce and advocate such a measure. He said that the anti-pass law was enacted, the railroads promised to reduce the fare, but this has not been done. In the event his bill fails, he will advocate making more liberal the anti-pass law. This question was not touched on in the Democratic platform adopted at San Antonio.

JUAREZ HOSPITAL NURSE ARRESTED BY STATE RANGER

Felipe S. Lopez was arrested Thursday afternoon at Fifth and Oregon streets by ranger C. H. Webster, on a charge of bringing stolen property into the United States. The complaint against Lopez was filed in justice Murphy's court and alleges that he brought from the military hospital in Juarez a quantity of surgical instruments and equipment. Ranger Webster recovered a quantity when the stolen appliances which are alleged to have been taken from the Juarez hospital in which Lopez was a nurse.

ARCHBOLD TELLS OF CONTRIBUTION

money question." He pointed out the situation and the need for further funds. I said I thought we had done pretty liberally. Finally I told him that I could not decide the matter, but that I would lay it before my board. "Was there anything in that conversation to indicate that Col. Roosevelt knew of your contribution?" asked senator Penrose.

"Yes, he gave me to understand that our contribution had been accepted, and that further contributions would be acceptable to Col. Roosevelt."

"Did Mr. Bliss ever tell you that Col. Roosevelt was grateful to you for not making this further contribution?"

"No," returned Mr. Archbold.

Never Heard Money Was Returned.
The witness said he never had heard of any proposition to return any campaign funds until within the last two or three days.

Senator Penrose asked if Mr. Archbold had talked to Mr. Bliss later.

"I went to Mr. Bliss after Mr. Roosevelt and some of the bureau had begun their line of unjust statements against us."

"Mr. Bliss threw up his hands and said that he saw the attacks were unjust and said he sympathized with us but could do nothing."

"These reports of Garfield and Smith were the work of mere puppets, who jumped when Roosevelt pulled the strings," declared Archbold.

Senator Penrose asked Mr. Archbold if he thought the refusal of Standard Oil company to make a second contribution had anything to do with the so-called unjust investigations.

"Well, I don't know,"

Senator Penrose insisted on knowing what passed between Mr. Archbold and Mr. Bliss at the conversation with the Roosevelt investigations were discussed.

"I suppose Mr. Bliss probably expressed his opinion that it would not have been this if we had done as he had wished and I have no doubt whatever on that question myself," answered Mr. Archbold.

"Do you know whether Mr. Bliss reported to Mr. Roosevelt that you had

DECLINED TO MAKE A FURTHER CONTRIBUTION

"declined to make a further contribution," asked senator Penrose.

"I reported, of course, that it was so reported. I do not know in what shape, the report was made but it undoubtedly was made," said Mr. Archbold.

Perkins May Testify.
Senator Penrose was a witness before the Clapp committee this afternoon. He introduced into the record the statement regarding the $25,000 contribution made by John D. Archbold and the contribution of $100,000 to the national campaign fund, which he made Wednesday in the senate. He said he had practically nothing to add to that, but would answer any question.

Senator Penrose's testimony today was brief and corroboratory of Mr. Archbold's. At its conclusion the committee adjourned and it was announced that George W. Perkins of New York would appear next Tuesday.

Chairman Clapp was in communication with New York city over the long distance telephone today, and it was said he had been discussing with some one there the probability of Col. Roosevelt's appearing. The nature of his conversation could not be learned.

Appropriation Bills Ready.
With a celerity that hitherto has not marked the sessions, congress rushed toward completion four great supply bills and looks forward confidently to adjournment Saturday.

Conferees on the sundry civil, Indian, army and postoffice appropriation measures reached agreements. The legislative, Indian and sundry civil measures were passed by the senate and the general deficiency bill, the last of the big supply measures to be taken up, was reported in the senate and the way was cleared for its consideration.

The house took no action on appropriation legislation further than to order all conference reports printed, and before adjournment tonight, it is believed, the legislative dockets will be comparatively clear.

Changes In Postal Service.
Radical changes in the postal service were provided for by the house and senate conferees on the postoffice bill. The Bourne parcels post system was adopted for the present, including the proposed ideas as to zones, distances and rates. The postmaster general, however, was empowered, with the consent of the interstate commerce commission, to change the rates, zones and articles admitted to the post.

The Simmons good roads provision was adopted. This appropriates $250,000 for permanent road construction, with a joint committee to study the proposition.

The senate provision, requiring newspapers to publish sent annually a list of stockholders, was adopted
